

FRESHMAN MERIT SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

University of Hawai'i at Mānoa Outreach College is pleased to offer a $1,200 merit scholarship to up to 200 first-year UH Mānoa students for Summer Sessions 2018. This award recognizes academically exceptional students who have demonstrated a commitment to completing their UH Mānoa degree in four years.

The $1,200 award is to be applied towards the tuition for a single UH Mānoa Summer Sessions 2018 course. Award recipients will be responsible for any remaining course tuition and costs.

Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for this Summer Sessions 2018 merit scholarship, you must

- have been admitted to UH Mānoa as a freshman in the Fall 2017 semester.
- have 27 or more credits. (Credits from classes completed by the end of Fall 2017 as well as classes registered for in Spring 2018 as of March 10 will be counted towards these 27+ credits.)
- have a cumulative GPA of 3.5 or higher as of the end of the Fall 2017 semester. (A student's cumulative GPA is based on credit courses completed at UH Mānoa.)
- be registered for at least 3 credits in the Summer 2018 term by March 23, 2018 at 4:30 PM HST.

Please note: If you have qualified to receive a $1,200 merit scholarship, you will be notified by email with additional details. You must accept the award before it can be applied to your UHM account, so be sure to check your UH e-mail account regularly to accept your award before the deadline expires. If you have any questions, please call 956-9246.

Submit this application to UH Mānoa Outreach College (see below) no later than Friday, March 23, 2018 at 4:30 PM HST. Award notifications will be sent to your UH e-mail account.
